Harry Potter; lesson arrangement

Harry Potter and the philosopher's stone HD trailer

Detailed explanation

"Mr. and Mrs. Dursley of number four, Privet Drive, were proud to say that they were perfectly normal, thank you very much."

This lesson arrangement is based on the first film in the Harry Potter series, the philosopher's stone. (Or the sorcerer's stone, this is the American version.)

During this arrangement you are going to make one assignment during class, one by yourself at home and you end the arrangement with a final project, which you are allowed to do with one classmate.

The first assignment will be an exercise which will determine whether you remember the film and the book correctly. The next exercise will consist of . You will do these assignments on your own.

The final project is a project in which you choose and make two assignments from a list and you will choose one of those assignments to present to your fellow classmates. You are allowed to do this in duos.

In the map extra material you can find a lot of useful links to help you finish this arrangement. But it also gives you some other links where you can do tests or find funny content.

Good luck!

After you find out which house you belong to, I want you to look up as much as you can about this house.

Write a dialogue between you and your best friend about why you agree or disagree with the sorting. It has to be at least 300 words, and may be a maximum of 500.

Add the sources you used. You will have to hand this in November the 15th during class.

Which house do you belong to?

Slytherin

Gryffindor

Ravenclaw

Hufflepuff

Final project

Your final assignment is a project you do on your own or with one partner.

You have choose 2 assignments from the list below and make both. You have to do both assignments together, so don't split them up. Send both assignments to me, so make a picture, a screenshot or send me the movie/text by the end of week 6.

Together you choose one assignment to show, read out loud or act out in front of the class in week 7. The best duo will get to choose the next film we're going to watch and do a project about. So do your best!

Assignments for your final project:

- re-make the cover of the film. (the front and the back, so also make a new story summary!)
- Make two new posters, one with pictures only and one with text only.
- Write a diary entry (dagboek) of at 200-500 words as if you were there during the troll in the dungeon accident.
- Act out a scene from the film but change the spoken words. (2 - 3 minutes)
- Write an article about Harry's first year at Hogwarts for the Daily Prophet. 200-500 words.
- Creat new house emblems (for example paint a new symbol in another colour on a piece of wood)
- Creat a shoe box with in there a scene from the film, but only with pictures of you (and your partner).
