

TASK 1.

Email about your holiday

During your holiday two years ago, you met someone from the London. You've been emailing each other ever since.

During this year's holiday you went to The White Beach Holiday Resort on Tenerife in the Canary Islands for ten days. Now you're back home, you're going to send an email to your friend telling him/her everything about your holiday.

- Pretend to write from your own experience.
- Name three reasons why you think your friend should really go to Tenerife/ this resort.
- Name one thing you didn't like about your trip.
- Describe two things you did/visited/saw during your holiday (beside lying on the beach and swimming in the pool/the sea).
- Min. 300 words

Pay special attention to the verb tenses you use. You're describing things you did in the past...

TASK 2.

Report the news

How do you keep up with the news? Do your parents read a newspaper or watch the eight o'clock news? Nowadays we can follow the news around the clock, and not just from newspapers, or tv. Everything you want to know, and don't want to know can be found on the internet.

For this assignment, we are going to make our own eight o'clock news.

- Work in pairs
- Select two news items that you find interesting and newsworthy
- Do research into these news items. What happened? Who? Why?
- After you've done your research, you're each going to present one news item as if you were the presenter of the eight o'clock news
- Film your presentations (using your mobile phone or a recording tool, make sure we can see you) and upload your presentations on Classroom after you have finished.
- Max. 2 minutes per item.
- I will combine your news reports, so we can watch our own eight o'clock news in class.
