

TASK 1.

Email about your holiday

(photos Pixabay.com)

During this year's holiday you booked a ten-day holiday to The White Beach Holiday Resort in Tenerife in the Canary Islands. These were some of the pictures shown on their website. Unfortunately, things aren't always what they seem. And because of that, your holiday was a big disappointment. Write an email to the booking agency (het reisbureau) to complain about the hotel.

- Pretend to write from your own experience.
- Think of three things that were not okay about this hotel.
- What do you expect from the booking agency (money back, voucher)?
- Min. 300 words

Pay special attention to the verb tenses you use. You're describing things that happened in past...

TASK 2.

Report the news

How do you keep up with the news? Do your parents read a newspaper or watch the eight o'clock news? Nowadays we can follow the news around the clock, and not just from newspapers, or tv. Everything you want to know, and don't want to know can be found on the internet.

For this assignment, we are going to make our own eight o'clock news.

- Work in pairs (both from Team Blue)
- Select one news item you think is interesting.
- Do research into this news item. What happened? Who? Why?
- After you've done your research, you're going to hold an interview. One of you is a journalist from the eight o'clock news and the other person was involved in the thing that happened.
- Make sure that, by the end of this interview, we know what happened.
- Film your interview (using your mobile phone or a recording tool, make sure we can see you both) and upload it on Classroom after you have finished.
- Max. 3 minutes.
- I will combine your interviews, so we can watch our own eight o'clock news in class.
