

FAVORITE HOLIDAY

What happened?

A1

100 WORDS

- Write a short email to your 'bestie'. Use a salutation.
- Talk about your favorite holiday. Where? When? How long? With whom?
- Explain why you enjoyed it so much. What was your favorite thing to do?
- Think of a good way to end your email.

A2

150 WORDS

- Write a short email to your 'bestie'. Use a salutation.
- Talk about your favorite holiday. Where? When? How long? With whom?
- Make sure your story flows. Try to connect sentences and use paragraphs.
- Tell your friend about two activities you did during your holiday.
- Make sure to advise your friend to go as well.
- Think of a good way to end your email.

B1

200 WORDS

- Write a short email to your 'bestie'. Use a salutation.
- Talk about your favorite holiday. Where? When? How long? With whom?
- Explain where you stayed (hotel, family, apartment...) and if you enjoyed it.
- Mention two activities you took part in. Would you recommend these?
- Explain that you are planning on going back next year.
- Ask your friend if they want to join you as well.
- Think of a good way to end your email.

FAVORITE HOLIDAY

What happened?

Capital Letters.

- Always start every sentence with a capital letter. (=hoofdletter)
- When writing in the first person (=ik-vorm), always use a capital letter. (= I )
- Always use a capital letter for names, cities and countries.

A cure for short sentences?

Connect short sentences with linking words.

Below you will find a list of common linking words that you can use:

- and = en
- but = maar
- so = dus/ daarom
- or = of
- while = terwijl
- because = omdat
- since = omdat/vanwege/sinds
- after = nadat
- if = als
- although = hoewel
- that = wat/ zodat
- when = toen

A tip for the verbs!

- to do = doen                      do, did, done
- to have = hebben                have, had, had
- to go = gaan                        go, went, gone

When you are planning to do something in the future, you can use the verbs 'going to' or 'will'.

Example: I am going to go to Spain. (= Ik zal naar Spanje gaan.)

Example: We will eat pizza every day. (= We zullen elke dag pizza eten.)