

Marty Feldman - Travel agent sketch

Old man: Are you open?
Travel agent: Well, yes. It says so on the door.
Old man: Yes we saw that, but we thought it might be a track.
Old woman: A track, yeah.
Old man: May we come in?
Travel agent: Yes, please. Come in.
Old man: We're not disturbing you, are we?
Travel agent: Not at all.

(Old man rings bell)

Travel agent: Why did you do that?
Old man: We wanted to see the travel agent.
Old woman: The travel agent.
Old man: Travel agent.
Travel agent: I am the travel agent.

(Old man and woman shocked: "Oh")

Old man: Why aren't you wearing your hat then?
Frightening people like that ...
Travel agent: What hat?
Old man: The hat with written 'travel agent' on it. You might be anybody, you might be a murderer!
Travel agent: No, no, no. 'Cause then I'd have a hat with 'murderer' on it.
Old man: Yes, so he would, yes.
Travel agent: How can I help?
Old man: Well, my wife and I would like to see the Edinburgh Festival.
Old woman: Edinburgh Festival.
Old man: Edinburgh Festival.
Travel agent: Well, how would you like to go?
Old woman: Err, sorry, could you repeat that question?
Old man: Yes.

Travel agent: How would you like to travel?
Old man: Don't know.
Old woman: Neither do I. What's the answer?
Travel agent: I'm not asking you a riddle, madam. I am seeking information. Do you want to go by train, plane or coach?
Old couple: No.
Travel agent: No what?
Old couple: Thank you.
Travel agent: That's better. I mean, no what?
Old man: Definitely not, we don't want to travel.
Old woman: No.
Travel agent: But you've got to travel!
Old man: Don't you order me about, young man!
Travel agent: Look, you want to see the Edinburgh Festival?
Old couple: Yes, we want to see the Edinburgh
Festival.
Travel agent: Therefore you have got to travel to Edinburgh.
Old man: Why?
Old woman: Yes, answer that young man, you're so clever!
Old man: Ah, ah, ah!
Travel agent: Because Edinburgh is the only place that has an Edinburgh Festival!
Old man: Isn't there one in London?
Travel agent: No, there isn't.
