

Evaluation Rubric	5	10	15	20	Total points
Presentation - contact with audience transfer of information to the audience - articulation - fluency	Monotonous presentation that is very difficult to understand. No clear sequence. Speaker has little or no eye contact with the audience.	Presentation is difficult to understand and little varied. The sequence is not clear. The speaker has very little eye contact with the audience.	Presentation is easy to follow, as it is well-structured and varied. The speaker to the audience and makes eye contact with the audience.	Presentation is easy to follow, varied, interesting and convincing. The speaker talks to the audience and makes eye contact.
Subject Knowledge - well-constructed and designed windmill which works properly, can gain energy. - can explain how it works and the 'making of' process.	Not all the required information is given or the information is not clear.	Only part of the required information is given.	All the required information is given, in a minimal way.	All the required information is given and in a detailed way. Extra interesting information is added.
Language - appropriate vocabulary. - use of grammatical structures: giving instructions and use of linking words.	A lot of basic mistakes; use of incorrect grammar and vocabulary. Wrong punctuation.	A few basic mistakes, but not annoying. Choice of vocab correct, but limited and repetitive. Difficult with correct pronunciation.	No basic mistakes, little use of new learnt structures. Accurate choice of vocab. Correct pronunciation of most of the words.	No grammatical mistakes; rich and varied choice of vocab.. Correct pronunciation.
Visuals - photos, schemes, graphics, PowerPoint.	Photos, schemes, graphics, PowerPoint unclear, not structured, is not related to the information that is told.	Photos, schemes, graphics, PowerPoint are not clearly structured. Not all the photos relate to the information that is told.	Photos, schemes, graphics, PowerPoint are clear and well-structures. The photos, schemes and graphics relate to the information that is told.	Photos, schemes, graphics, PowerPoint reinforce the information that is told and captivate the audience.
Group - participation - group work	Not all members participate in the presentation. End result of the group work is missing or incomplete.	Not all members participate evenly in the presentation. Group work is incomplete.	All members participate evenly in the presentation. The group work is complete.	All members participate evenly in the presentation, present themselves as a team and support each other. The group work shows the individual participation.	