

Rio: 3D cartoon

Plot: Rio is a 3D cartoon movie that takes place in the Brazil. The movie tells the story of a blue macaw that was smuggled out of Brazil. When his crate fell off a truck in America, he was rescued by Linda who named him Blu. Blu never learned to fly because he was raised by a human and so the other birds make fun of him. Years later an ornithologist invites Linda and Blu to visit Rio de Janeiro with him in the hopes of finding Blu a mate and helping him to learn to fly. There he meets Jewel another macaw and falls in love. There are many adventures including being captured by a group of smugglers.

Characters

Blu - a boy macaw who can't fly. He is shy and clumsy but very clever too.

Jewel - a girl macaw who wants to escape the rainforest.

Nigel - a cockatoo that is very mean and hates exotic birds like macaws

Linda - a human and Blu's owner

Rodrigo - a Brazilian ornithologist

Carlos - leader of the smugglers

Opinion

This movie was very entertaining. We learn about bird smuggling and how cruel it is. I liked the fact that this movie mixes cartoon characters and cartoon people. The bird cartoon characters are colorful and very amusing. The human characters are both good and bad. It is fun to see a movie that takes place in such a beautiful city as Rio de Janeiro. And the music is absolutely fabulous- it's mostly Brazilian and very cool.
