Content of song; Lyrics	The lyrics are outstanding and flow with the melody. The student uses lyrics that linger or draw pictures in the reader's mind. The lyrics seem natural to the ear. The form is clear and well-structured: The verses are of appropriate length. there is a clear chorus that definitely repeats. The student demonstrates an outstanding understanding of the topic.	The lyrics are meaningful. The student uses lyrics that linger or draw pictures in the reader's mind, but occasionally some words are used inaccurately or seem a little forced/ unnatural. The form is clear and structured: The verses are of appropriate length. There is a clear chorus that repeats. The student demonstrates an understanding of the topic.	Acceptable use of language within the lyrics. The student uses lyrics that communicate clearly, but the lyrics lack variety and flair; miss 'that something extra'. The form is present, but not always well-structured: The verses are most of the time of appropriate length. There is a chorus that repeats.	Poor use of language within the lyrics; incoherent; they are just random words and phrases that are put together in an attempt to write a song. The form is present, but most of the time not well-structured: The verses are most of the time of appropriate length. There is a chorus that repeats. The student uses lyrics that seem, unnatural or forced and do not seem to communicate or do not grab the reader's interest.
