

Family dinners around the world

Chris Terry, a journalist, went in search of what dinner time looks like for families experiencing displacement or extreme poverty. He visited five families connected with the World Food Programme, across three continents

Ecuador 	Chad 	Niger
Jordan 	familymeal.eu	Myanmar

Investigate the website familymeal.eu

Make a description of the five countries/families and their traditions:

If you have a celebration in your family, and extra people come to your dinner, describe what happens (same room/table, other cutlery, other set of plates, what kind of meal, etc.)