My festival is About dancing. In the festival are decorations and a dance floor and a drink stand. You can dance everywhere. Even the people that are making drinks are dancing. It's a festival for people that want fun because their life is boring.

You can do games with your friends like who is the best dancer. And there is a competition on the festival: The best costume, the best dancer and the worst dancer.

You have to take your dance shoes with you and you can have a costume for the competition. You can see a stage with judges because they are choosing the best and worst dancer.

When you wanna drink you can buy Coca Cola or Fanta for €1,50.

In the end of the festival there is another competition and the winner meets Cristiano Ronaldo 🏃⚽. It's a competition about the person who can hold it the most time dancing non-stop. Now come to this festival because dancing is very fun!
